

YEAR 4 DAILY MENU

Morning year 4, did you have a good day yesterday? Monday's can be a challenge. I know we all like to rise to the challenge though, have you done your morning workout? Miss Walker has been doing her daily video challenges, did you sign up to the Specsavers 'Virtual' Sussex School Games <https://www.youtube.com/watch?reload=9&v=DJOnsyR183o&feature=youtu.be> I'm sure you're trying your best. Do what you can and go for it. Fact for the day – did you know fish can be as small as 1cm long! Unlike the largest fish, the whale shark, which can grow up to 12 metres in length – wow that's huge!

MATHS

Yippee! Multiplication!!
You should be happy with these and getting rather speedy with your tables. Pick your challenge and go for it. Remember to set your work out clearly.

EXPLAIN IT.

Why is $34 + 56$ the same as $56 + 34$?
Can you remember that rather long word comm_____?

Main course

ENGLISH

The King of the Fishes.

This week in our English main menu course we will be developing a unit of work around the short story called "The king of the fishes." Yesterday we read the text and recorded ourselves reading it.

Quick recapping

What did Li usually do with the fish that he caught?
What was special about the king of the fishes?
How did Li save the king of the fishes?
How long did it take Li to decide on his wish?
Whose baby did Li hear at the end?
Today we are going to look at ways to structure sentences and use the pattern to create our own. Have a look at the activity "The substitution game" below.

Dessert

CREATIVE

Daydream doodling!

Sit in a quiet place with your home learning book, find part of a page and doodle. Let your mind wander. Create patterns, letters, faces, blobs. Just let your fingers do the moving.

Chef's Specials

Tasty Tuesday, try the amazing, spectacular times table rock stars or even hit the button; it's a winner!!

The Substitution Game

- a) In this sentence from The King of the Fishes, the writer has picked three parts of the fish to describe in detail.

It had silver scales that glittered in the sunlight, blood-red fins and a golden crown.

- b) The nouns have adjectives before them.

The writer has added extra detail about the scales by using that to add on a relative clause: 'that glittered in the sunlight'.

- c) Can you see that my sentence is the same but it is about a lion? I am substituting the words in the sentence for new ones.
Don't forget your comma!

It had giant paws that thundered across the earth,
sandy fur and a fearsome roar.

d) Make up your own sentences by substituting! You can use the pictures below for some ideas
